

Marie Mason

is serving

22 years

for destroying Monsantofunded GMO research

No one was harmed in her actions. At her sentencing the judge said she "violated the marketplace of ideas." She was sentenced under the terrorism laws and is currently being held in a special isolation prison unit in Carswell, Texas.

Vandana Shiva on Marie:

"I pay tribute to Marie Mason for what she did to keep our food, our agriculture, our environment free of GMO's. I think it's criminal that she's been treated like a criminal."

Join the Move Marie campaign to ask the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) to transfer her from this unit and to call for its abolition.

October 21: Call-in to the BOP

October 25: Letter-writing events to the BOP
